

Visit attractions in London or Dorset on your way to ExcursionsTM 2017

ExcursionsTM show organisers Tourism South East are offering a choice of familiarisation trips sampling the group offer for days out and short breaks in London or rural Dorset. The informative overnight trips for group travel organisers are packed with itineraries planned around the prestigious one day show held at Alexandra Palace, North London on Saturday 28th January.

Home to many group friendly attractions, London is a fascinating city to explore where cosmopolitan districts intertwine with iconic landmarks. Based at the Best Western Palm Hotel in North West London, this one night familiarisation trip offers the chance to experience more cultural aspects to the city. The itinerary takes in the Victorian & Albert Museum, Royal Albert Hall and Lords Cricket Ground plus an Italian themed dinner at Zizzi followed by a West End show.

Located on the South Coast, Dorset is a playground for groups with its heritage sites, Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, sweeping beaches, dramatic cliffs and sheltered bays. There is something for every interest group, including historic houses military museums and exotic gardens to explore. Overnight accommodation will be at the Best Western Royale Hotel, Bournemouth, while attractions visited on the two night trip include the Tank Museum, Lulworth Educational Centre, Russell Cotes Art Gallery, Poole Pottery and Ringwood Brewery; there's also a cruise around Poole Harbour.

For more details and to book a place contact the Excursions team on Tel: 023 8062 5516. Full itineraries and prices for both familiarisation weekends can be found on the show website www.excursions2017.com.

Registration for FREE entry to ExcursionsTM will open mid-September.

- Ends -

For press enquiries and images please contact:

Pat Edgar, PR Matters
Brambling House, 7 Finch Lane
Little Chalfont, Bucks HP7 9NE

Tel: 01494 764932 / 07836 786043
Email: PRMatters@dsl.pipex.com
19 August 2016